

at a glance...

1st quarter 2020

The official quarterly report of the Ellis County Department of Development.
All numbers are cumulative through the end of each reporting quarter.

*Projections are generated using the NCTCOG population estimates and then ran using two (2) growth models: 2%, and 4% growth scenarios. These numbers represent an average of those models.

single family residential permits

staff workload

septic installations

overall complaints

population projections*