"I am excited about the future of Ellis County and the leadership and vision provided by our Commissioners' Court. Through their willingness to collaborate and reach consensus, this budget commences projects that once seemed unlikely and prepares our community for the future."

Todd Little
County Judge

Attn: Ellis County Citizens, Commissioners, Elected Officials and Departments:

It is with gratitude and excitement that I present to you the Fiscal Year 2024 Adopted Budget. This is the fifth consecutive budget that I have worked with Commissioners to prepare, and it represents a fiscally-conservative approach to lowering the tax rate, reducing our debt, and funding capital projects on a cash basis while adhering to the guidelines of the Emerging Ellis County 2050 Strategic Facilities and Implementation Plan.

I am excited about the future of Ellis County and the leadership and vision provided by our Commissioners' Court. Through their willingness to collaborate and reach consensus, this budget commences projects that once seemed unlikely and prepares our community for the future. We have prioritized our revenue allocations based on the needs of our offices and departments to serve the public, and we are providing them with sufficient room for growth as more and more people from around the metroplex enjoy the benefits of living in Ellis County.

Expenditure Breakdown by the Dollar

Law Enforcement/Public Safety

Internal Admin/Facilities

Debt Reduction

Government Services

Road & Bridge

Court System

Under the Texas Constitution and Government Code, the fundamental role of county government is to provide for the public safety, justice, and development needs of our citizens at a local level. In order to fulfill this duty, public officials must not only meet present needs, but maintain a future-oriented mindset as well as follow through with past obligations. We are now one full year into our debt reduction plan, and the Fiscal Year 2024 Budget continues to reserve the necessary funds to eliminate all debt obligations by 2026. At that time, our Interest & Sinking (I&S) tax rate will go to zero.

Total Tax Rate Components (per $100)

The Fiscal Year 2024 Budget commences several key capital projects that will reduce unnecessary operating costs for the county by replacing leased facilities with county-owned ones. According to the 2050 Strategic Plan, we will reach several “trigger points” for construction during Fiscal Year 2024. These include renovations for the new Ellis County Central building, construction of the Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2 building, and planning for the remodeling of the Courts & Admin building to provide much-needed space for new courtrooms, a central jury-selection area, and enhanced security measures.

Adopted ARPA Focus Area Allocations

These are exciting times to live in and be a part of Ellis County, Texas. Our citizens can be proud of the strong financial position of their government. Our financial position is healthy, and our fund balance & reserves continue to increase as a percentage of operating revenues at a rate higher than many other counties nationwide. The economy and tax base are stable and have increased from $22.1 billion in 2019 to $37.1 billion in 2023. Even so, we are proud that our county property tax rate continues to decrease from $0.3605 per $100 of value in FY 2019 to $0.2968 in FY 2023 and $0.2725 in FY 2024, respectively.

Ellis County Property Tax vs. Revenue

I want to thank each and every one of you for your diligent work and perseverance as we have researched, planned, and commenced a comprehensive blueprint for continued success. Without your cooperation and input, none of this would have been possible. Without further ado, I proudly invite you to explore the Fiscal Year 2024 Ellis County Budget.

Sincerely,

Todd Little

Ellis County Judge
